

Newsletter

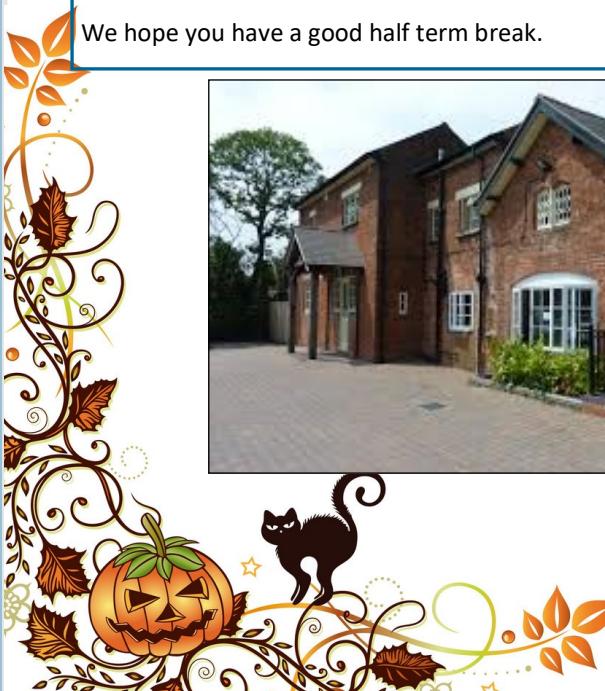

As we begin a new academic year we want to wish a warm welcome to our new learners and their families and carers, and welcome back to all. We have expanded our pathways to six, to more closely reflect the needs of our learners and provide the appropriate learning environment for them.

We are also welcoming a number of new staff, and recognising staff who have gained qualifications.

Trinity staff will also take part in Trauma Informed Safeguarding training and information and support will be given by Jodie Diver who is our Designated Safeguarding Lead.

Please make a note in your diary for the Celebration Event on the 17th December when we will proudly acknowledge our learners achievements . We would love to see you there.

We hope you have a good half term break.

In this edition...

We hear from our six pathways:

Outreach

Sensory

Life and Living

Independence

Volunteering

Employment

We welcome new staff and say goodbye to those who are leaving us.

Look out for events over the break

Celebration Event 17th December

Independence Pathway

So far this term we have been busy welcoming new learners and completing initial assessments. Some of our learners have been busy down at Oakdene nursery - weeding and tidying. Tracey has been leading a music and movement group which learners and staff really enjoy. Along with the community visits into Sutton on the bus and to ASDA.

Life and Living and Sensory Pathways

Great fun was had this term by the group, on topics such as Mexico Day, which learners celebrated by making face masks, using a piñata and dancing to Mexican music.

Recently they enjoyed pumpkin carving for Halloween Spooky!

Outreach Pathway

We are especially proud of our learners in the Outreach Pathway, who have worked incredibly well with Rob, Stacey and Hannah to further develop their social skills, and communication and to be able to access the community, working on building skills for life. Keep up the great work!

Employment and Volunteering Pathway

As part of our focus on good health, learners have been working in the gym. Here, Leah, Jason and Heather show support for each other.

The learners were treated to a ride in a limousine to take them to the Shining Stars Prom at St James's church at Lichfield on the 14th September., where they boogied into the night at the disco. "It was the best night"!

Our Free Student Wednesdays at the Birmingham Museum Thinktank, will open up a world of science, technology and learning for those in further or higher education. Learners can immerse themselves in the past or explore how science, technology and medicine have had a huge impact on the way we live now and in the future.

As part of the Thinktank community inclusion trip, learners planned the route, purchased the tickets and completed research into some of the information they saw.

Thinktank, Birmingham Science Museum will be turned into a spooktacular party on Saturday 30th October as part of a thrilling Spooky Science Night.

Watch the Trick or Treat show, where every choice will lead to delightful or disgusting experiment, and then dance the night away at the silent Zombie Disco.

There are also prizes to be won for fancy dress - but don't forget to get your picture taken at our spooky photo studio!

The Include Me project has been developed following a consultation with disabled people, disability organisations, national specialist organisations and existing academic and national research. Following the consultation period a wide range of actions have been developed with the aim of creating a more inclusive environment and a better understanding of people's needs.

Include Me West Midlands puts disabled people and people with long term health conditions at the heart of the conversation and covers the following themes.

- Transport
- Housing
- Community
- Wellbeing
- Workforce
- Digital
- Children & Young People

It aims to create a collective momentum and a demonstration of a willingness to learn from and listen to disabled people. For more information contact:
